Whatever you did for the least of mine,
you did for me.

In Matthew 25:31-40, we hear about the corporal works of mercy...

For I was hungry and you gave me food,

I was thirsty and you gave me drink,

a stranger and you welcomed me,

naked and you clothed me,

ill and you cared for me,

in prison and you visited me.

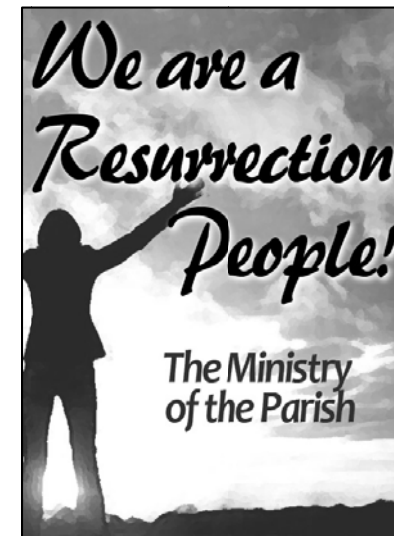

This scripture passages not only speaks to us individually, but to our parish community as a whole. "The local parish community is the concrete reality of the church and as such, is a community of prayer, spiritual life, mutual service, and apostolic activity; a liturgical, caring, missionary community*," set to carry out the challenge of caring for others as Jesus instructs us in Matthew's Gospel.

*Quoted from canon lawyer James A. Coriden,

"The Parish in Catholic Tradition:
History, Theology and Canon Law"

You are invited to join together for a Parish Enrichment Workshop

OPEN TO EVERYONE!!!

presented by

Rev. James A. Coriden, JCD, JD

James A. Coriden was ordained a Presbyterian of the Diocese of Gary Indiana in 1957. He joined the faculty of the Washington Theological Union in 1975 and currently teaches canon law. Prior to joining the Union, he served on the tribunal and in the chancery in Gary and then taught canon law at Catholic University of America. Fr. Coriden was one of the editors and authors of The Code of Canon Law: A Text and Commentary ('85) and of the New Commentary on the Code of Canon Law ('00). He is also the author of a book entitled "The Parish in Catholic Tradition: History, Theology and Canon Law."

options for Breakout A

A-1 Keepers of the Vision and Speakers of the Word

This session will explore the definition of the word parish and dive deeper into the four areas of activity within a parish. Participants in this group will be charged with the task of looking at Resurrection Parish through the lens of these four areas— ❶ Proclamation and Formation, ❷ Worship and Sacramental Celebrations, ❸ Works of Charity and Care, and ❹ Outreach and Social Concerns.

Presented by Kate Kleintank

Director of Religious Education, Church of the Resurrection (Ellicott City)

A-2 Parishioners as Pastoral Ministers

The parish is said to have five primary elements of Pastoral Care entrusted to it—the Ministry of ❶ the Word of God, ❷ the Sacred Liturgy, ❸ Pastoral Charity, ❹ Christian Witness and ❺ Coordination and Administration. This session will explore how parishioners serve as contributing servants in each area.

Presented by Connie Romero

Parishioner, Resurrection of Our Lord Parish

A-3 Parable of the Goats and the Sheep

What is my role in leading others to the kingdom of God?

This is a general talk for all catechists, parents, grandparents and anyone else who is a leader by their faith. What does this parable mean, what is the bigger picture? How is my role important in the separation of goats and sheep? How do I teach the children and youth to be sheep?

Presented by Allie George

Coordinator of Faith Formation, Resurrection of Our Lord Parish

options for Breakout B

B-1 “We are committed to serve...”

A deeper look at our Parish Mission Statement

A guided discussion based on our Parish Mission statement. “We are committed to serve the spiritual and essential needs of everyone who walks through our doors.” How is our parish mission statement being carried out in our parish community? How can we better serve the Kingdom of God through our actions? How will a future pastoral leader fit into our mission statement?

Presented by Michael Ruzicki

Pastoral Associate, Resurrection of Our Lord Parish

B-2 You Are My Children Called to Serve

A breakdown of Matthew 25: Jesus is crystal clear about our responsibilities as his disciples. We are to actively participate in the mission of Jesus, reaching out to those in need. How can we follow this mission more fully at Resurrection Parish?

Presented by: TBA

B-3 Youth Gathering – Social Outreach

A husband and wife share the story of their daughter, Tara, who passed away in 2006. Tara’s life story is one of selflessness and love as she spent it in devotion to serving others. She lived her life to make a difference in the world around her. Listen to the story of her life and find out how she is still impacting people today! Come, and let yourself be empowered!

Presented by Linda and Bill Howard
